Aviva Kempner's Rosenwald is the incredible story of Julius Rosenwald, the son of an immigrant peddler, who never finished high school, but rose to become the President of Sears. Inspired by the Jewish ideals of tzedakah (charity) and tikkun olam (repairing the world), and a deep concern over racial inequality in America, Julius Rosenwald used his wealth to become one of America's most effective philanthropists.

Influenced by the writings of the educator Booker T. Washington, Rosenwald joined forces with African American communities during the Jim Crow South to build over 5,300 schools during the early part of the 20th century. Because of his modesty, Rosenwald's philanthropy and social activism are not well known today. He gave away $62 million in his lifetime.

Lulav and Etrog Orders Being Taken

One of the most inspiring ceremonies during the entire synagogue year is the lulav and etrog processional, held each morning of Sukkot. It is a sight to behold, seeing old and young alike circling our sanctuary and waving these most religious symbols.

Again this year, Israel etrogim sets are available, each containing a lulav holder, lulav bag, hadasim etrog, and, most importantly, a book describing the symbolism of the lulav and etrog. The price is minimal—$36 for the standard set. Take advantage of this outstanding offer and of the opportunity to participate in a most meaningful Jewish ceremony. To obtain your set, contact the Temple office as soon as possible or return the coupon below with a check made payable to Temple Adath Yeshurun.

HIGH HOLIDAY CHILDREN'S SERVICES

Rosh Hashanah

Day 1 : Monday, October 3rd

Day 2: Tuesday, October 4th

Yom Kippur

Wednesday, October 12th

Junior Congregation - (2nd to 7th Grades)

10:30 am - 11:00 am

Junior Congregation Service in the Miron Family Chapel

A child centered service created to engage & inspire children in grades 2-7.

A High Holy Day service focused on the prayers and music of the holidays.

We are putting a strong emphasis on having adequate supervision in the chapel provided by staff and trained volunteers to maintain the proper decorum and kavanah. We hope this will enable the leaders of the service to focus on the prayers and content, and that the service will be enjoyable to all who attend.

Parents are welcome to join us for the service but we ask you to remember that this is a children's service.

11:00 am - 11:30 am

High Holy Day Interactive Experience in the Miron Family Chapel

An interactive, hands-on experience that will give children an opportunity to learn about important Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur themes.

11:30 am - 12:15 pm

Children's Activities

The service will be followed by age-appropriate holiday activities as we break into smaller groups for a light Kiddush snack and holiday fun.

Nancy R. Weisberg Board Room: Grades 2 - 3

Muriel and Avron Spector Library: Grades 4 - 5

Youth Lounge (Rm 15): Grades 6 - 7

Tots' Program - (Birth to 1st Grade)

10:30 am - 11:30 am

Young Children's Service in the Muriel and Avron Spector Library

Young children and their families will join together for an upbeat service with age-appropriate prayers, stories, and songs. This service is geared toward young children to help them celebrate the holidays.

For the young children's service, we welcome parents and families to join us.

Yom Kippur - Neilah - Blowing of the Shofar

Wednesday, October 12th - 6:50 pm

Please gather in the Miron Family Chapel as we get ready to end the holiday with our traditional flashlight walk.

Tashlikh Tradition Continues

According to Jewish tradition, in the afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah (if it falls on Shabbat, the second day) we gather as a community at a stream, brook or creek and symbolically reach into our pockets, remove crumbs and throw our sins away. Our Tashlikh service will be held in the late afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Monday, October 3rd at 5:30 p.m. For the past several years, members of our community have gathered to recite the words and sing the songs of this unique and highly symbolic service. Join us at Meadowbrook Creek (corner of Kimber Road and Meadowbrook Drive). After the Tashlikh service, we will walk or drive up Kimber Road in enough time to relax before mincha, and then begin our evening service at 6:30 p.m.

Newborn Ceremony of Blessing

Rosh Hashanah celebrates creation, so what better time than the beginning of the Jewish New Year to affirm the ongoing circle of life through our children? A special Ceremony of Blessing for children born since last Rosh Hashanah will take place in the Goldberg Sanctuary during the Musaf service on the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Monday, October 3rd. Parents and grandparents will rise to say the traditional Shehecheyanu of having reached this special day. All new parents, grandparents & great grandparents are invited to participate. Please call the Temple Office at 315.445.0002 or email info@adath.org with your new addition's name and birth date.

Cemetery Memorial Service

On Sunday, October 9th, at 9:30 am, at Temple Adath Yeshurun, there will be an Adult Education program entitled "Of Grave Concern" to review the Syracuse Rabbinical Council booklet A Guide to Jewish Funeral and Mourning Customs. Following this program, at 11:00 a.m., we will hold the annual Temple Adath Yeshurun Memorial Service at our cemetery. Conducted by Rabbi Paul S. Drazen and Ba'alat Tefillah, Esa Jaffe the service continues the tradition of visiting graves of departed loved ones between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Join with us and participate in this memorial service; a tradition of beauty and special meaning in our congregation.

Operation Isaiah

Please fill a bag with canned goods, soup, vegetables, fruits, fruit juice, peanut butter, jelly, tuna, and entree-type canned meals, and bring it with you to services at Kol Nidre and/ or Yom Kippur, October 11th & 12th. After the holiday, food will be packed and delivered. Thank you for doing all you can to help our Central New York neighbors in need!

Yom Kippur Family Havdala Service

As the sun begins to set and the Gates of Heaven, according to tradition, prepare to close, our little ones - children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren - will march down the aisles of the Goldberg Sanctuary, each carrying a special light. As the Goldberg Sanctuary lights are dimmed, we will say farewell to the High Holy Days and usher in the New Year. This ceremony will take place about 7:00 p.m. on Yom Kippur Day, Wednesday, October 12, immediately before the blowing of the shofar.

Food Related Customs for Rosh Hashanah Round Challah

Challah can be made in many shapes; braided is typical for Shabbat. The custom on Rosh Hashanah is to have round challot to symbolize the cycle of life.

Dipping Apple or Challah in Honey

As a symbol of our wish for a sweet new year, there is a custom to dip a piece of apple or challah in honey and say the following before eating:

יְהִי רָצוֹן מִלְּפָנֶיךָ ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְאֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתֵינוּ
שֶׁתַּחַדֵּשׁ עִלְיֵנוּ שָׁנָה טוֹבָה וּמְתוּקָה.

Y'hi ratzon m'lifanekha Adonai eloheinu v'elohei avoteinu she t'hadesh aleinu shanah tovah oom'tukah.

May it be Your will, Adonai our God and God of our ancestors, to renew this year for us with sweetness and happiness.

New Fruit

Another custom is to eat a just-in-season fruit which we have not yet eaten in order to focus on the cycle of seasons and to appreciate our ability to celebrate. The new fruit is eaten between kiddush and ha-motzi, after saying the brakha:

בָּרֹךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הָעֵץ.

Barukh atta Adonai eloheinu melekh ha-olam, boreh pri ha-etz.

Praised are You, Adonai, Master of time and space, Creator of tree-fruit.

A Letter to My Poppy

Martyrology

Wednesday, October 12
immediately following Minha

presented by Liz Nord daughter of Samuel & Sybil Nord with musical accompaniment
by Esa Jaffe, Ba'alat Tefillah

Following a trip to the Kraków Jewish Cultural Festival as part of an international delegation of Jewish artists, Liz Nord - a globally recognized documentary filmmaker and journalist - wrote a heartfelt piece to her Poppy. He was her last surviving grandparent, who fled from Galicia, Poland, and died when Liz was only 2 years old. Liz graduated Summa Cum Laude with a degree in Multimedia Communication from Boston University.
