

The schedule for Rabbi Neil Tow's visit will be slightly different from that of our other candidates to a prior commitment that Rabbi Tow has. As you will note below, the Thursday evening presentation that the other candidates made will be moved to Sunday morning since there is no religious school due to the school vacation.

Rabbi Tow will be arriving on April 12, 2019. The following are the dates and times for you to meet Rabbi Tow:

April 12, 2019 at 5:30 p.m. – Mincha and Kabbalat Shabbat services followed by the congregational dinner. If you plan on joining us for dinner, please contact the office immediately to make your reservations.

April 13, 2019 at 9:15 a.m. – Shabbat morning services where Rabbi Tow will help lead services and speak. Please join us for lunch after services.

April 14, 2019 at 9:45 a.m. – Coffee and a nosh followed by a learning session at 10:15 a.m. for approximately 30-45 minutes.

In addition to these opportunities, Rabbi Tow will meet with Board of Directors and Search Committee. At the conclusion of Rabbi Tow's visit, you will be provided with an electronic survey to complete with your thoughts and comments.
