

JOIN US FOR A FREE TEEN DAY TRIP TO PHILLY TO VISIT THE...

National Museum of American Jewish History

Trip is sponsored by the Joseph Elman Family Fund for Holocaust Studies at the Jewish Community Foundation of Central New York.

Sunday, December 11, 2016

- For students in grades 8–12
- Bus: Departs at 8 am, returns approx. 10:30 pm
- Departure/return: JCC of Syracuse, DeWitt

This FREE outing includes roundtrip travel, museum admission, a guided tour and a kosher lunch and dinner. Register today—only 35 spots available! To register, call the JCC at 315-445-2360 or visit www.jccsyr.org.

The National Museum of American Jewish History, located on Independence Mall in Philadelphia, Pa., was established in 1976 and is the only museum in the nation dedicated exclusively to exploring and interpreting the American Jewish experience. With more than 25,000 objects, the museum is the repository of the largest collection of Jewish Americana in the world.

SAM POMERANZ
JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER
OF SYRACUSE