Tashlikh Tradition Continues

According to a Jewish tradition, in the afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah (if it falls on Shabbat, the second day) we gather as a community at a stream, brook or creek and symbolically reach into our pockets, remove crumbs and throw our sins away. Our Tashlikh service will be held in the late afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Thursday, September 21st at 5:30 p.m. Join us at Meadowbrook Creek (corner of Kimber Road and Meadowbrook Drive). After our Tashlikh service, we will return to TAY in enough time to relax with a little snack before evening services at 6:30 p.m.

Newborn Ceremony of Blessing

Rosh Hashanah celebrates creation, so what better time than the beginning of the Jewish New Year to affirm the ongoing circle of life through our children. A special Ceremony of Blessing for children born since last Rosh Hashanah will take place in the Goldberg Sanctuary during the Musaf service on the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Thursday, September 21st. Parents and grandparents will rise to say the traditional Shehecheyanu of having reached this special day. All new parents, grandparents & great grandparents are invited to participate. Please call the Temple Office at 315.445.0002 or email info@adath.org with your new addition's name and birth date.

Cemetery Memorial Service

On Sunday, September 24th at 11:00 am, we will hold the annual Temple Adath Yeshurun Memorial Service at our cemetery. Conducted by Rabbi Paul S. Drazen and Ba'alat Tefillah, Esa Jaffe, the service continues the tradition of visiting graves of departed loved ones between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Join with us and participate in this memorial service, a tradition of beauty and special meaning in our congregation.

Operation Isaiah

Please fill a bag with canned goods (soup, vegetables, fruits, fruit juice, peanut butter, jelly, tuna, and entree-type canned meals) and bring it with you to services at Kol Nidre and/or Yom Kippur, September 29th & 30th.

After the holiday, food will be packed and delivered. Thank you for doing all you can to help our Central New York neighbors in need!

Three Levels of Forgiveness

The Martyrology, also known as Eileh Ezkerah, is a standard part of the Musaf service on Yom Kippur. The reflections of the section focus on losses in our history. The section follows the Avodah service, which describes the Yom Kippur Temple service, another section of memory. As we begin using our new mahzor, Lev Shalem, our congregation will follow the mahzor and recite selections from Eileh Ezkerah in its traditional place.

On Yom Kippur, Saturday, September 30 at 4:00 pm, we will join for an opportunity for study. The topic for 5778 is a look at the three levels of forgiveness in the Jewish tradition.

Yom Kippur Family Havdala Service

As the sun begins to set and the Gates of Heaven, according to tradition, prepare to close, our little ones - children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren - will march down the aisles of the Goldberg Sanctuary, each carrying a special light. As the Goldberg Sanctuary lights are dimmed, we will say farewell to the High Holy Days and usher in the New Year. This ceremony will take place about 7:15 pm on Yom Kippur Day, Saturday, September 30th, immediately before the blowing of the shofar.

Food Related Customs for Rosh Hashanah Round Challah

Challah can be made in many shapes; braided is typical for Shabbat. The custom on Rosh Hashanah is to have round challot to symbolize the cycle of life.

Dipping Apple or Challah in Honey

As a symbol of our wish for a sweet new year, there is a custom to dip a piece of apple or challah in honey and say the following before eating:

יְהִי רָצוֹן מִלְּפָנֶיךָ ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְאֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתֵינוּ
שֶׁתַּמְחִיד שָׁנָה טוֹבָה וּמְתוֹקָה.

Y'hi ratzon m'lifanekha Adonai eloheinu v'elohei avoteinu she t'hedesh aleinu shanah tovah oom'tukah.

May it be Your will, Adonai our God and God of our ancestors, to renew this year for us with sweetness and happiness.

New Fruit

Another custom is to eat a just-in-season fruit which we have not yet eaten in order to focus on the cycle of seasons and to appreciate our ability to celebrate. The new fruit is eaten between kiddush and ha-motzi, after saying the brakha:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הָעֵץ.

Praised are You, Adonai, Master of time and space, Creator of tree-fruit.

The Ethical Life: Jewish Values in an Age of Choice

From political and financial scandals to rapid progress in biomedical science and technology, the complex issues of modern society are, at their core, issues of ethical and moral concern. Now more than ever, we require a solid understanding of how Jewish ethics can inform our discussions and decisions about the critical questions of the day. Judaism has a long history of wrestling with moral questions, responding to them in a way that considers all sides of an issue.

This course for adult learners will be conducted by Rabbi Paul Drazen. It includes videos featuring JTS faculty, other expert scholars, and practitioners in the field; classical and contemporary texts.

Lulav and Etrog Orders Being Taken

One of the most inspiring ceremonies during the entire synagogue year is the lulav and etrog processional, held each morning of Sukkot. It is a sight to behold, seeing old and young alike circling our sanctuary and waving the most religious symbols.

Again this year, Israel etrogim sets are available, each containing a lulav holder, lulav bag, hadasim, etrog, and, most importantly, a book describing the symbolism of the lulav and etrog. The price is minimal—$36 for the standard set. Take advantage of this outstanding offer and of the opportunity to participate in a most meaningful Jewish ceremony. To obtain your set, contact the Temple office as soon as possible or return the coupon below with a check made payable to Temple Adath Yeshurun.

Esa Jaffe, Ba'alat Tefillah to serve as Interim Director of the Religious School at Temple Adath Yeshurun

With the relocation of Shannon Small and her family to Nashville, we've been actively searching for a new Religious School Director. We've not yet been able to hire a permanent replacement for Shannon, and Esa Jaffe graciously agreed to reassume the position on an interim basis for the coming school year. Prior to her current position as Ba'alat Tefillah, Esa served as the TAY Religious School Director for many years.

Esa has been a member of our professional staff for twenty-three years. Esa is a graduate of Brandeis University where she earned her undergraduate degree in psychology. After graduation, Esa attended Syracuse University where she obtained a graduate degree in voice performance. She returned to Brandeis University where she attended the Hornstein School of Jewish Communal Service with an emphasis on Jewish education.

Religious School registration documents are available online at www.adath.org. If you have any questions regarding Religious School, please contact Esa Jaffe at school@adath.org.

Simḥat Torah Aliyot

The central part of services? Reading the Torah. Over the course of a year we read from the beginning of the scroll to its end, tracing from creation through arriving at the Promised Land.

There are two special aliyot, marked on the morning of Simḥat Torah: one, Kalat or Hatan Torah, marks the last aliyah of Deuteronomy, the other, Kalat or Hatan B'reshit, the first in Genesis. Around the world, these two aliyot are considered to be special honors.

Beginning this year, TAY will be awarding these honors to members who have earned them through service to the congregation.

Watch for the announcement designating those being honored in 5778.
