Selihot Saturday, September 1

The film tells the story of the more than 500,000 Jewish men and women who served in World War II. Mel Brooks, Carl Reiner, and Henry Kissinger are among the veterans, both famous and unknown who share their experiences through interviews, photos, and archival video footage. The film description states, "They narrate how they fought for their nation and their brethren in Europe, while at the same time struggling with anti-Semitism within their ranks. After years of struggle, they emerge transformed, more powerfully American and more deeply Jewish."

Shown at major Jewish film festivals in 2018, including:

Washington | Atlanta | Chicago | Miami
Palm Beach | Dallas | Philadelphia

in the Miron Family Chapel

A child centered service created to engage and inspire children in grades Kindergarten-7. The program will consist of a High Holiday service for children followed by snacks and activities designed to highlight the meaning of this special time of year. The activities and service will bring children of different ages together to experience “teshuvah, tefillah and tzedakah” (repentance, prayer and charity), all qualities of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. While parents are welcomed to join us, this service is designed for the children.

Please gather in the Miron Family Chapel as we get ready to end the holiday with our traditional flashlight walk.

High Holiday Traditions & Customs

Tashlikh Tradition Continues

According to a Jewish tradition, in the afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah (if it falls on Shabbat, the second day) we gather as a community at a stream, brook or creek and symbolically reach into our pockets, remove crumbs and throw our sins away. Our Tashlikh service will be held in the late afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Monday, September 10 at 5:30 pm. Join us at Meadowbrook Creek (corner of Kimber Road and Meadowbrook Drive). After our Tashlikh service, we will return to TAY in enough time to relax with a little snack before evening services at 6:30 pm.

Newborn Ceremony of Blessing

Rosh Hashanah celebrates creation, so what better time than the beginning of the Jewish New Year to affirm the ongoing circle of life through our children. A special Ceremony of Blessing for children born since last Rosh Hashanah will take place in the Goldberg Sanctuary during the Musaf service on the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Monday, September 10. Parents and grandparents will rise to say the traditional Shehecheyanu of having reached this special day. All new parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents are invited to participate. Please call the Temple Office at 315.445.0002 or send an email to info@adath.org with your new addition's name and birth date.

Cemetery Memorial Service

On Sunday, September 16th at 11:00 am, we will hold the annual Temple Adath Yeshurun Memorial Service at our cemetery. Conducted by Rabbi Carl Wolkin and Ba'alat Tefillah, Esa Jaffe, the service continues the tradition of visiting graves of departed loved ones between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Join with us and participate in this memorial service; a tradition of beauty and special meaning in our congregation.

Operation Isaiah

Please fill a bag with canned goods, soup, vegetables, fruits, fruit juice, peanut butter, jelly, tuna, and entree-type canned meals, and bring it with you to services on Kol Nidre and/or Yom Kippur, September 18th & 19th. After the holiday, food will be packed and delivered. Thank you for doing all you can to help our Central New York neighbors in need!

Eileh Ezkerah & Yom Kippur Study

The Martyrology, also known as Eileh Ezkerah, is a standard part of the Musaf service on Yom Kippur. The reflections of the section focus on losses in our history. The section follows the Avodah service, which describes the Yom Kippur Temple service, another section of memory. As we continue using our the mahzor, Lev Shalem, our congregation will follow the mahzor and recite selections from Eileh Ezkerah in its traditional place. On Yom Kippur, Wednesday, September 19 at 4:20 pm, we will join together for an opportunity for study.

Yom Kippur Family Havdalah Service

As the sun begins to set and the Gates of Heaven, according to tradition, prepare to close, our little ones – children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren – will march down the aisles of the Goldberg Sanctuary, each carrying a special light. As the lights are dimmed, we will say farewell to the High Holy Days and usher in the New Year. This ceremony will take place about 7:15 pm on Yom Kippur Day, Wednesday, September 19th, immediately before the blowing of the shofar.

Food Related Customs for Rosh Hashanah

Round Challah: Challah can be made in many shapes; braided is typical for Shabbat. The custom on Rosh Hashanah is to have round challot to symbolize the cycle of life.

Dipping Apple or Challah in Honey: As a symbol of our wish for a sweet new year, there is a custom to dip a piece of apple or challah in honey and say the following before eating:

יְהִי רָצוֹן מִלְפָּנֶיךָ ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְאֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתֵינוּ
שֶׁתַּמְדֵּשׁ עָלֵינוּ שָׁנָה טוֹבָה וּמְתוֹקָה.

Y'hi ratzon m'lifanekha Adonai eloheinu v'elohei avoteinu she t'hedesh aleinu shanah tovah oom'tukah.

May it be Your will, Adonai our God and God of our ancestors, to renew this year for us with sweetness and happiness.

New Fruit: Another custom is to eat a just-in-season fruit which we have not yet eaten in order to focus on the cycle of seasons and to appreciate our ability to celebrate. The new fruit is eaten between kiddush and ha-motzi, after saying the brakha:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, בּוֹרֵא פְּרִי הָעֵץ.

Barukh atta Adonai eloheinu melek ha-olam, boreh pri ha-etz.

Praised are You, Adonai, Master of time and space, Creator of tree-fruit.

Lulav and Etrog Orders Being Taken

One of the most inspiring ceremonies during the entire synagogue year is the lulav and etrog processional, held each morning of Sukkot. It is a sight to behold, seeing old and young alike circling our sanctuary and waving these four species.

Again this year, Israel etrogim sets are available, each containing a lulav holder, lulav bag, and hadasim etrog. The price is minimal—$36 for the standard set. Take advantage of this outstanding offer and of the opportunity to participate in a most meaningful Jewish ceremony. To obtain your set, contact the Temple office as soon as possible or return the coupon below with a check made payable to Temple Adath Yeshurun.

OPEN TO THE COMMUNITY

Yale Strom & Hot Pstromi is a unique klezmer/Roma ensemble featuring Elizabeth Schwartz on vocals, David Licht on percussion, Norbert Stachel on reeds, Peter Stan on accordion, Sprocket on contrabass, and Yale Strom.

While doing research in Eastern Europe, among the Jewish and Roma musicians, Strom collected many of the tunes the ensemble performs. Strom lived with these people, wrote about them, made films about them, and photographed them. All of this comes through the Hot Pstromi's repertoire.

The band plays traditional traditional Yiddish/Klezmer tunes along with Roma tunes. Many people do not know that in some regions of Eastern Europe like eastern Hungary, Carpathian Mountains, Bessarabia the Roma often played with and for Jews as did the Jewish musicians play for and with the Roma musicians. Added to this mix will be a high dosage of improvisation.
