Emanuel Perlman
Cantor

Emanuel Perlman is a lyric tenor, composer, lecturer, recording artist, therapist, clergy and World Peace Ambassador. He has concertized throughout the world. He earned a Bachelors Degree in Music and Voice from Rhode Island College and a Masters Degree in Psychiatric Social Work from Yeshiva University. Emanuel also attended the Cantors Institute at the Jewish Theological Seminary. He received a Doctorate in Music, honoris causa, from the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York.

Cantor Perlman served at TAY from 1992 through 1997. After leaving our temple, he served as hazzan in Baltimore at Chizuk Amuno Congregation. During that time, he developed an international reputation for his spiritual music and dedication to world peace. He has channeled all his considerable energy, unparalleled altruism, and incomparable talent to Destination Peace, a non-profit organization that has led him and his wife, Janice, to spiritual journeys around the globe.

Esa Jaffe
Ba'alat Tefillah

Esa has served as the Ba'alat Tefillah since 2008. In her role as musical leader and shaliach tzibur she has been able to draw on her history at Temple Adath Yeshurun to maintain its musical traditions while at the same time, building new ones. Esa is a trained singer with a Master's Degree in Voice Performance from Syracuse University. She also holds a Master's Degree in Jewish Communal Service from the Hornstein Program at Brandeis University with a concentration in Jewish Education. Esa received her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from Brandeis University as well.

Esa's professional career at TAY began in 1994 as a teacher in the religious school and USY advisor. On July 1, 1999, she became the Director of Education for the TAY Religious School, serving in that position until July 2008 when she became our Ba'alat Tefillah, our cantorial soloist. Since July 2017, Esa has been serving as the interim religious school director.
