Dear TAY family,

One of the wonderful events which has been reinstated (with the decline in COVID) is our annual Scholar-in-Residence program, scheduled for April 28-30.

It has been my custom to organize a group of Patrons for the event. A donation of $50/person ($100/couple) not only shows your tangible expression of concern and involvement for our S-i-R program, but also affords you two benefits; an invitation by Meira and myself to a Patrons Party at our home on that Saturday night, to socialize and meet our Scholar in a more intimate setting; and inclusion at our Friday night (Shabbat) dinner at the Temple at no cost.

I sincerely hope that you can be a part of this important group of support to the S-I-R; your name(s) will be publicized in a printed program of the event that weekend.

My best wishes for a happy and Kosher Passover.

With Blessing,

Rabbi Moshe Saks

(explorejewishindia.com). Travelers discover the extraordinary fusion of Jewish and Indian cultures from synagogues and architecture, to vegetarian and kosher cuisine, to incredible sites and experiences. She infuses each tour with her personal, spiritual and musical insights as well as her knowledge of India's Jewish history.

Musleah's articles have appeared in The New York Times, Hadassah magazine, and numerous other publications. Her publications include Apples and Pomegranates: A Family Seder for Rosh Hashanah; and a CD of Shabbat and holiday melodies, Hodu: Jewish Rhythms from Baghdad to India.
