The synagogue has a three-fold purpose. It is a Beit Tefillah – a House of Prayer, a Beit Kenneset – a House of Gathering, and a Beit Midrash, a House of Study. Here at Temple Adath Yeshurun, we strive to excel at all three aspects of synagogue life. Our Services, both weekday and Shabbat, are both informative and inspirational. Our building is the gathering place for community events like Israel Independence Day, and the like. In addition, we have a wide range of classes, catering to many different interests, culminating in our wonderful Scholar-In-Residence Weekend.

This is a very exciting year here at TAY. We celebrate our 150th year as a congregation, and revel in all of our past accomplishments, as we look forward to a bright future ahead. Most importantly, we are part of the Conservative Movement, the only denomination in Jewish life which embraces both tradition and change. We support Shabbat and Kashrut – we are also fully egalitarian – both in our religious services and in the way we operate as a synagogue.

Mazal Tov to everyone! May we all go from strength to strength.

With Blessing, Rabbi Moshe Saks

It is so special to be part of this special celebration of our synagogue's 150th celebration. My family has a long history in this institution and it is a privilege to work here at the place where I grew up. This temple is such a special place, filled with caring people, who throughout the years, have dedicated themselves to serving this Jewish community. We have celebrated many years in joy and remained together in difficult times. At this difficult moment in time, it is reassuring to know that we have existed for 150 years and are strong going forward into the next 150 years.

150 Years is accomplished by a very few religious homes

Having my family involved since July 1966, with Rabbi Hyman gave us a feeling of warmth that I still feel each and every day.

Happy and sad times. Twenty years of attending morning Minyan filled for me the void after my wife Billie passing in 'or.

My hope is that this celebration encourages each and everyone of us, to access in our own way, the role played by TAY in our lives.
