A Message from Rabbi Saks

It is relatively easy today to find examples of people or nations profaning the name of God by using His “authority” to oppress others. Those who would have us believe that they know exactly what God wants them to do, especially when it concerns harming others, give religion, in general, a bad name. Nevertheless, this should not serve as an excuse to deny God’s existence. We need God – in whatever form we determine that Higher Power to be. A true and honest faith in God enables one to fully realize his or her human potential. In addition, it can help us to avoid the idolatries of the day – money, power, and especially dangerous – worship of the self.

No one ever said faith in God is easy. Especially after we experience the death of a loved one, we may have many questions: Do I question my God? Am I sometimes angry with Him? Do I often challenge Him? Do I ponder His ways? Of course! But I cannot ignore Him or pretend that He does not exist, for then I would have no hope; nor would Humanity. The power of God is carried through us, His children.

That power, and the faith that exists with it, is especially present at Yizkor. The remembrance of our loved ones, family and friends, the Martyrs of Israel, including the Six Million, offer us the opportunity to connect the past with the present, using their memory as a source of strength to perform acts of lovingkindness in order to promote peace in the world. A tangible expression of this strength, such as a charitable gift to TAY, in memory of your loved ones, is most appropriate.

Please accept my sincere wishes for a healthy and happy New Year.

YIZKOR

When I stray from You,
Adonai, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You,
even in death I have life.
You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.
The earth inherits that
which perishes.
The dust returns to dust; but the soul, which is God's, is eternal.
Adonai is compassionate to all creation, granting us a share in unending life.
God redeems our life from the grave, joining us forever
in the unending chain of life.

May we preserve the memory of those we love
and are now gone, through charity in deed and thought.
May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace,
so that we will be remembered as a blessing,
as we lovingly remember,
this day, those who live on
in our hearts.

—Jules Harlow

Backwards and Forwards

Yizkor:
Looking backward, we recall
our ancestry.
Looking forward, we confront our destiny.
Looking backward, we reflect on our origins.
Looking forward, we choose
our path.
Remembering that we are a tree of life, not letting go,
holding on, and holding to,
we walk into an unknown,
beckoning future, with our past beside us.

—Harold Schulweis
(adapted)

We Recall

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.
Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.
Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love.
Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives.
So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us.
Though they are gone, we are grateful for the blessings they brought to our lives. We are sustained and comforted by the thought that their presence in our lives remains an enduring blessing that we can bequeath to others.
We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideas that they cherished.

O God of love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live faithfully, for we are cheered by our confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to live on, even as we may not see their fulfillment.

—mordecai M. Kaplan, Eugene Kohn, and Ira Eisenstein
(adapted from Mahzor Hadash)

Some people whose parents are living have a custom of leaving the service at this time, but even those who do not yet need to say the personal prayers of remembrance might remain and recite prayers for others as well as join in the communal prayers (beginning on page 292, below).

ADONAI, what are human beings that You take account of them, mortals that You care for them? Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow. In the morning they flourish anew, in the evening they shrivel and die. Teach us to count each day, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

יהוה, מִה־אָדָם וְתַדְעֵהוּ,
בְּן־אָנוּשׁ וְתַחֲשָׁבֵהוּ.
אָדָם לְהֵבֶל דָּמָה,
יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בְּבֹקֶר יִצְיֵץ וְחָלָף,
לְעֶרֶב יִמּוּלֵל וַיִּבֶשׁ.
לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ בֶּן הַיּוֹדֵעַ
וְנִבְיֵא לְבַב חֲכָמָה.

On this solemn day we each make judgments about the quality of our life. We re-examine our deeds and relationships with our community and with others. We express our yearnings for a new year, a new beginning, a year during which we commit ourselves to work toward bringing health and peace to all. We long for a year when individually and communally we shall strive to live in a way that is more reflective of the ideals that we cherish. Now, in the midst of looking at our life and assessing its quality, we pause to reflect and to remember, and to dedicate ourselves anew.

God is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall. Therefore I am glad, made happy, though I know that my flesh will lie in the ground forever.

שְׂוִיֵּתִי יְהוָה לְנִגְדֵי תְּמִיד,
כִּי מִיָּמֵינִי בַל־אֲמוּט.
לְכֵן שָׂמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל
כְּבוֹדִי, אֶף בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁפֹן לְבִטָּח.

The deaths of those we now remember left holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives and we are strengthened by the blessings that they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

INTRODUCTION. Yizkor is a time set aside to formally include in our thoughts and prayers family and friends who have passed away. Though Yizkor is recited on each of the festivals, on the High Holy Days we may feel a special connection to those who have played a significant role in our life's journey. The themes and somber ambience of the Yom Kippur service make this day especially appropriate for contemplating life and death. Thus, in reciting Yizkor, the veil between the worlds of the living and the dead becomes more transparent, less opaque. May the memory of those we recall be a blessing in our lives.

WHAT ARE HUMAN BEINGS מִה־אָדָם. The verses in this passage come from Psalms 144:3-4, 90:6, and 90:12.

GOD IS ALWAYS שְׂוִיֵּתִי יְהוָה. Psalm 16:8-9.

Though I stared earnestly at my fingernail

Yesterday when I was on the #7 bus
I happened to look at the cuticle of my right forefinger and for a moment

I thought not that it was mine
but that it was my father's—

the same small confusion I have
from time to time
when I catch sight
of my daughter
in her denim skirt, size 3,
and I feel lean, willowy,
in her clothes.

So there I was on the #7 bus overtaken by a
longing very close to love staring at the cuticle of my right
forefinger.

I remembered how clean and short he kept his nails
and suddenly there was the whole man
reconstituted from a fingernail standing
before me, smiling
broadly, his face flushed with pleasure.

But then just as suddenly
he was gone
and though I stared earnestly at my fingernail
I failed to bring him back.

TZ' DAKAH/CHARITY יְצַדֵּקָה.
The Yizkor service was called sefer matnat yad, the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals (when Yizkor is recited): "Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from Adonai" (Deuteronomy 16:17). Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love, and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honoring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

*A Yizkor Meditation
in Memory of a Parent
Who Was Hurtful*

Dear God,

You know my heart.
Indeed, You know me better than I know myself,
so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl
as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds,
of anger and of dismay
that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grief
that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right
as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God,
to subdue my bitter
emotions that do me no
good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be
calmed by forgiveness,
or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You,
who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me
from this desert to Your holy place.

IN MEMORY OF MARTYRS:

May God remember the souls of the martyrs of our people, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name. In their memory do I pledge tz'dakah. May their bravery, their dedication, and their purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF CONGREGANTS:

May God remember the souls of our friends, members of this holy congregation, who have gone to their eternal home. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link us to their memory. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help us to perpetuate everything that was worthy in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

IN MEMORY OF THE SIX MILLION:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all the men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered, strangled, and burned in the Shoah. May they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

suspended on a thread of longing.

I and you and the

I and you and our lives

I and you
and the lie.
And the fear.
And the breaches.
I and you
and the Creator
of the heavens that have no shore.
I and you
and the riddle.
I and you
and death.

psalm 23

a psalm of david.

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.

God gives me repose in green meadows,
and guides me over calm waters.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—
for that is God's way.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:

You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,

And I shall dwell in the house of Adonai in the fullness
of time.

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the House of Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed—though God, who is blessed, b'rikh hu, is truly far beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And respond with: Amen.

We Remember Them

*At the rising sun and at its going down;
We remember them.*

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter;
We remember them.*

*At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring;
We remember them.*

*At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer;
We remember them.*

*At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn;
We remember them.*

*At the beginning of the year and when it ends;
We remember them.*

*As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as
We remember them.*

*When we are weary and in need of strength;
We remember them.*

*When we are lost and sick at heart;
We remember them.*

*When we have decisions that are difficult to make;
We remember them.*

*When we have joy we crave to share;
We remember them.*

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs;
We remember them.*

*For as long as we live, they too will live, for
they are now a part of us as,
We remember them.*
